Hi, I'm Noah. I'm the School Psychologist at Roebourne School and I want to tell you about my job and how I might be able to help.

Who I work for:

I work for schools and no one else. At school I have 2 bosses, one is the principal and the other is an older psychologist.

Why I help:

Sometimes the school will ask me to help with a student if the teacher is worried about something or if the family is worried about something. It doesn't mean something is wrong with the kid, the school just needs help.

What I need from you:

If you decide you're okay with me helping I'll have to ask you some questions to learn about your kid. You can come to the school, I can come visit you at home or I can give you a call. I'll also need to talk to you later to let you know how it's going and I might have more questions.

How to contact me:

I work at Roebourne School Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. You can tell your kid's teacher or the deputy or an AIEO if you'd like my help, or just call the school. Then the deputy will call you to plan a chat with me.

What I do:

I can help if a kid is finding it hard to learn or follow the school rules or are feeling no good. To help out first I need to ask a lot of questions to find out what the problem is, then I can help come up with ways to fix the problem. I might watch the student in class, talk to the teacher and ask you and the people who live with the student what they think. Then make a plan.

What I do with the information:

The things I learn about students goes into a private file to keep the information safe. I don't share that file with anyone without your permission unless someone could get hurt.

How I help the school:

I don't just help students. I also help the school become an even better place for students by working with the leaders in the school, teachers and support staff.
